NOTES AND EXPLANATION

Work on the Day record was begun in 1932. Much of the data on Day descendants was secured during the first two or three years of work and brought up to date in 1939 or 1940. In several cases there has been no response to recent requests to bring information up to date, and it has been impossible, as yet, to locate several families. Over six hundred descendants of Giles and Hannah Cutler Day have been listed. Undoubtedly the total would be nearer seven hundred if data on all these could be secured. The families located are scattered over about half of the forty-eight states as well as in Canada. The fact that both collection of data and mimeographing of material have extended over several years accounts for many of the irregularities and imperfections of the work. It was hoped that before the work was completed some of the missing records might be secured and inserted in their proper sequence, and in many cases this was done.

The following explanation of the number system may assist in the location and tracing of individuals. All descendants of Giles and Hannah Day and the Day and Cutler families are completely indexed. Each individual descendant bears a number, and keeps the same number whenever he is listed. As a child of a family this number appears in parentheses (), as head of a family without. Thus two number sequences run together, one at the extreme left for heads of families, and the other indented and in parentheses for children. By following these sequences either forward or backward the descendants of any individual or the descent of that person from Giles and Hannah Cutler Day may be determined. For example: The index may list an individual on page 75; his number may be found to be (546) and his father's number 315; follow indented number sequence back until (315) is located on page 38, child of number 122; follow back until (122) is located on page 16, child of 28, and so on back to Giles Day, number 1.

SIXTH GENERATION in America

1. GILES DAY (son of Giles and Sarah Day Day)

Born Feb. 13, 1784 Marlborough, Vt.

Died Dec. 13, 1872 Johnston, Ohio. Buried in Johnston.

Married Mar. 10, 1808 Marlborough by Rev. Gershom Lyman HANNAH CUTLER. She was born Mar. 28, 1788 in Marlborough, or Bennington, Vt. (Marlborough Vital Records list her birth but her tombstone states Bennington.) She was daughter of Josiah and Betsey Allen Cutler of Marlborough and Woodford, Vt. She died Sept. 21, 1874 in Gustavus. Buried in Johnston.

Giles Day took the freeman's oath in Marlborough Sept. 6, 1808. He inherited land in Marlborough from his father and later bought additional property, his name appearing frequently in the land records. He was probably a blacksmith as one deed refers to his blacksmith shop. The 1870 census lists him as a cooper and his death record as a mechanic. He and his family evidently lived in Springfield, Mass. for a time between 1819 and 1822. In a deed of 1821 He is called "of Springfield" but according to a deed of 1822 he is again back in Marlborough. In 1827 and 1828 He disposed of his property in Marlborough, probably preparatory to migrating westward. The births of the first eight children are listed in Marlborough, which suggests that they may have left before the birth of the ninth in 1828, yet in a deed of a later date in 1828 Giles Day sells "land I now live on". A history of Trumbull and Mahoning Counties Ohio states that he settled in Ohio in 1829, evidently an error, judging from other records. Flavia, the oldest daughter, married in Bainbridge, Chenango Co., N.Y. in 1829 and Lavina, the youngest child was born in Broome Co., N.Y. in 1833. Apparently the family spent several years in New York state before moving on to Ohio, although his name does not appear in the land records of either county.

The first record of the family in Trumbull Co., Ohio is a deed to Giles L. Day, the oldest son, on Feb. 22, 1840 for land in Johnston. Salmon and Flavia Day Bunnell are known to have come from Bainbridge, N.Y. to Johnston about 1835. Records of Leicester Day and Lavina Day Eastlick also place the move in about 1834 or 1835. Probably both families came at the same time. Giles Day evidently purchased no property in Trumbull Co. In 1843 Giles L. Day and Salmon Bunnell set aside to Giles Day one acre of land including a blacksmith shop in Johnston. He sold this land in 1856, at which time he is called of Mesopotamia. He left no will.

SEVENTH GENERATION

2. FLAVIA DAY

Born Nov. 20, 1808 Marlborough, Vt. (Marl. Vital Records)
Bennington, Vt. (obituary

Died June 26, 1881 Jefferson, Ohio

Married Dec. 10, 1829 Bainbridge, N.Y. SALMON BUNNELL, son of Havilah and Dorcas Gale Bunnell of Bainbridge. He was born June 30, 1806 Bainbridge, died Dec. 11, 1882 Jefferson. Both are buried in Oakdale Cemetery, Jefferson.

A sketch of her life written by Ellen Bunnell Sheldon in 1899 gives interesting facts about the life of this family. About 1835 or 1836 Salmon Bunnell and his family moved from Bainbridge to Johnston, Ohio, the move being made in a two horse lumber wagon. The new home of unhewn logs was in a region mostly forest with only a few scattered settlers. In 1847 he sold his farm and in 1848 moved to Jefferson, Ashtabula Co. In 1853 he bought a tract of forest land in the northeastern part of the town. He engaged in the lumber business and operated a sawmill. He was the pioneer of that corner of the town. He later sold this property, 1868, and bought a farm near town on the main road between Jefferson and Ashtabula. His will was made Dec. 24, 1878 and probated Dec. 27, 1882.

At the time of the birth of a younger child, Diana Day was taken by her uncle, Roswell Day of Granby, Conn. Because of a rapidly growing family and the fact that her uncle's family had become so attached to her, she was brought up by them, remaining in Granby when her family moved west. After her marriage the family remained for some time in Granby, later moved to Trumbull Co., Ohio, where several of the children were born, and finally located in Platteville, Grant Co., Wis. in 1857.

 Charles and Betsey Colt Clark, and widow of Thomas Stevens
 by whom she had several children, probably Miriam, Marilla, Stoddard G., Thomas, John, and Elijah. She was born in 1789 in Mass. Buried in Mesopotamia. Died Sept. 23, 1861. He married (2) Sept. 27, 1863 E.J. Brown. Evidently this is his wife

 Isle of Man. She was born in Painesville, Ohio 1839, died Conneaut, Ohio 1911. Buried in Mesopotamia with husband and two children. Willard Day was a blacksmith and a resident of Mesopotamia.

Data on this family has been supplied by a number of different people, and in many cases dates do not agree. In such cases the one which best agrees with a census or other record has been used. One person lists a daughter Laura Maria as given here, another lists Maria as another child who died in childhood. The census record seems to support the former.

DAY

It is handed down by tradition that the Day family originally came from Wales. This is probably correct as in a book of Heraldry it says that a Day is descended from the Dees of Wales. Dee, meaning dark or dingy, is the name of a river and was probably applied to some ancestor who lived on its banks to distinguish him from another, and came to be written Daye or Day. The name still prevails in Wales and is pronounced as here.

NIMS

I. GODFREY NIMS

From two sources of Nims descendants has come the tradition that he was a French Huguenot. According to tradition he was born in Nimes, France about 1650, and first spelled his name Godefroi de Nismes, but changed the spelling to fit the colonial pronunciation. The first colonial record found of him is a court record of Northampton, Mass. 1667, indicating that he and two other boys ransacked houses while people were at meeting on Sunday and took money, with the intention of running away to to the French. The court judged that they should be whipped, Nims, the leader, fifteen lashes, and that they should return treble the amount taken. He took the oath of fidelity 1672/3 in Northampton. He served in 1676 in the Falls Fight against the Pocumluck Indians. He afterwards settled in Deerfield where he became the owner of considerable property, and an honored and respected citizen. Constable 1689, selectman 1691, 1695-6, cordwainer. Married Mary Williams, daughter of William Miller, and widow of Zebediah Williams, Nov. 26, 1677. (2) 1692 Mehitable, daughter of Wm. In 1694 the house and one child were burned when Henry accidentally ignited some flax or tow. ADAMS

I. ROBERT ADAMS

Born in England 1602. Came first to Ipswich 1635 bringing wife, Eleanor (Wilmot)? and two children. Believed by many to have come from Devonshire and to have been a son of Robert and Elizabeth Sharlon or Sharland Adams and to have been a cousin of Henry Adams of Braintree. Others think this pedigree wrong, and that he came from Holderness, possibly of Scotch rather than of Welsh ancestry. He was a tailor. Lived Salem 1638-9; to Newbury 1640 where he acquired a large farm and valuable property. Died Oct. 12, 1682 aged 81. Wife died June 12, 1677 and he married (2) Feb. 6, 1687 Sarah Glover short widow of Henry. She died Oct. 24, 1697.

ALLEN

BETSEY ALLEN? mother of Hannah Cutler, was born Mar. 10, 1765 according to her tombstone in Woodford, Vt., which states that she died Feb. 22, 1841 aged 75 yrs. 11 mos. 12 days. Her marriage, Nov. 25, 1784 to Josiah Cutler is recorded in Brookfield, Mass.

No proof of her parentage has been discovered, but I believe her to be identical with Betty, daughter of William and Susanna Packard Allen, who was baptized Apr. 19, 1767 (East Bridgewater, Mass. Cong. Church Record) together with seven other children of the family. The following circumstances suggest this identification:

1. As will be seen in the following record of this family the births of six children of the family are listed in Bridgewater in the years 1750, 1752, 1754, 1756, 1758, and 1760. In 1767 these six and two others, Robert and Betty, apparently born between 1760 and 1767, were baptized, no ages stated in the published record. This makes it entirely possible that Betty may have been born in 1765, the date of birth of our Betsey Allen, and Robert either before in 1762 or 1763 or after in 1766 or 1767. Two other children, Mary and Sarah, baptized in 1768 and 1773 are listed in Brookfield, Mass.

2. I find no further record for Betty, child of William and Susanna Allen, unless she is the Betsey Allen who married Josiah Cutler. Marriages apparently for all the others except Edward and Robert are listed in Brookfield, so it seems highly probable that Betsey who married Josiah Cutler was of this family.
3. I have checked all the other Allen families of Brookfield as indicated by births and marriages, and find no other Betty, Betsey, or Elizabeth of an age to have married in 1784, nor any place for an unrecorded one. I have also checked extensively all the Bridgewaters, Sudbury, Sherborn, Sturbridge, Oakham, and several other towns with which Brookfield Allens were connected, and still find no place for our Betsey.
4. I have checked all published vital records of Mass. and most of the published Allen genealogies and find no one to identify with the Betsey Allen who married Josiah Cutler in 1784. This, of course, is entirely negative evidence, and largely indicates the extent of the search.
5. Of the names given to the children of Josiah and Betsey Allen Cutler three could have come from the family of William and Susanna Packard Allen, Rhoda, Susanna (or Susan) and Sally (for Sarah).
In addition to the records searched as indicated by the preceding, the following sources were consulted:
 1. Worcester Co., Mass. Probate - No will or administration for either William or Susanna Allen. Betsey not found in other Allen records.
 2. Worcester Co. Land Records - No record found to connect our Betsey Allen with any Allen family. No land records whatever for William or Susanna Allen, so no record of heirs to the property.
 3. Plymouth Co. Probate - No record for either William or Susanna Allen.
 4. Plymouth Co. Registry of Deeds - No land records of William or Susanna Allen after their deaths.
 5. Bennington Vt. Probate - No record to indicate parentage or relatives of Betsey Allen.
 6. Marlborough, Vt. Land Records - No indication of relatives of Betsey Allen. Apparently none of the family of William and Susannah Allen settled here. One of the sons, Elijah, settled in Shaftsbury, Vt. but this is too far away to suggest two related families settling in Vt. at about the same time.
 7. 1790 census Bennington Co., Vt. - Shows none of the names of sons of William and Susanna Allen except a William, but as there are four males over 16 listed in this family it appears that he would not likely be that William. None of the names of husbands of daughters of this family appear here either.
 8. Vermont Gazetteer, a newspaper printed in Bennington, Vt., of Mar. 16, 1841 - Gives death of Betsey Cutler, widow of Josiah, in Woodford, but does not give place of birth or parentage.

9. Histories of Bridgewater, Brookfield, and several other Mass. towns connected with Brookfield Allens and of Marlborough, Vt. give no further help on our Betsey Allen problem.
10. Veterans Administration, Washington - Josiah Cutler was granted a pension for Revolutionary service. Considerable family information is on file, but not the birthplace nor parentage of his wife, Betsey Allen.

It is regrettable that the parentage of Betsey Allen can not be proved. Both William Allen and Susanna Packard, believed to be parents of Betsey Allen Cutler, are descended from Francis Cooke, of the Mayflower. Some of the Day descendants have stated that they have understood that the Days were of Mayflower descent. This is quite likely one of those unfounded traditions which comes down in many families, but it may actually be based on fact, possibly this line.

The following Allen line may or may not be that of Betsey Allen Cutler. It is given here for study of its possibilities in relation to our Betsey Allen and as a subject for further investigation.

HOWE

I. JOHN HOWE

From the painting which used to hang on the wall of the Old Red Horse Tavern in Sudbury (coat-of-arms) it has been conjectured that he was the son of John How Esq. of Warwickshire, Eng., who was son of John How of Rodinhull, and was related to the family of Lord Chas. How, Earl of Lancaster in the reign of Chas. I. Confirmation of the tradition has not been discovered in the records. John How's name has not been listed in Hotten's List of Emigrants to America. It has been supposed by some that he lived for a time in Watertown, Mass. but disputed by various authorities. He is mentioned in Temple's History of Framingham as a glover. It is certain that he was in Sudbury, Mass. as early as 1638/9 and shared in the division of Sudbury Meadows about this time. Freeman May 13, 1640. Selectman 1642. In 1656 he was a signer of a petition to the General Court for a grant of lands in Marlborough, and was a first settler there in 1657 or 58. Owned a considerable quantity of land. One of the first selectmen of Marlborough. Took a prominent part in civil and religious affairs. Kept a tavern for many years. Commanded a garrison house in Marlborough during King Philip's War. Lived near the Indian plantation and had their good will. Various dates have been given for his death and also that of his wife. His will is dated May 24, 1680 and an inventory of his estate was taken June 5, 1680 so he must have died between these dates. Inventory of widow's estate was taken Sept. 9, 1698.

Name appears on the list of those who suffered in the Indian wars. His son David was the first landlord of the Howe Tavern or Red Horse Tavern, made famous by Longfellow in his "Tales of a Wayside Inn". This is the famous Henry Ford "Wayside Inn".
